- 22. I would like to continue meeting new people.

23. I would probably have nothing better to do, and coffee never hurt anyone
24. it would be nice...it's not really that big of a demand, could be fun, probably be enjoyable
25. I would like to date more than I do; Stanford students as a whole are very likeable
26. it'd be a chance to avoid Stern Dining and, also, get to know someone better.
27. I should give them a chance
28. doesn't hurt
29. why not?
30. I guess I would go just to get to know them better, but i probably wouldn't be thinking that it would lead to anything more
31. I'm open to at least being friends.
32. why not?
33. why not
34. there is not much to lose, and it could be fun and maybe even lead somewhere
35. I would know that they were interested and I would accept if I thought we could continue having an interesting conversation.
36. why not? it's a good way to meet people
37. i would like to get to know him
38. it's just coffee or lunch, and therefore pretty informal
39. depends - if seems interesting/attractive yes. i love meeting new people, romantic and otherwise
40. it's just getting to know the person better regardless of romantic interest
41. try my luck
42. I think that you need to be proactive to find people you like at Stanford, and I think it's pathetic how little Stanford students are interested in more traditional dating.
43. I really enjoy meeting people and would be flattered.
44. if they're okay, then why not? I'm open-minded, and it's not like I have to marry the person or something.
45. thatd be really nice
46. I like to take any opportunity I can to get to know new people.
